Key Knowledge

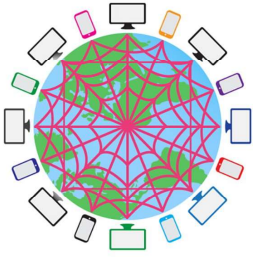

What is a network?

A computer network is a group of computers and digital devices joined together or connected.

When devices are connected we can use them to share or send information.

The internet is a very big computer network. Devices from around the world can connect to the internet network.

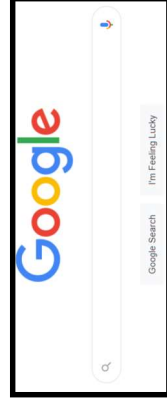

Devices can be connected to the network using thick wires called cables or without cables (wireless, wifi).

How can I search for information on the internet?

To search for information you need to use a search engine, like Google.

You type in the search bar e.g. dinosaurs. Then press 'Google search' or enter.

Your browser will show the search results.

You can use the tool bar to search for different types of information.
